The City of Terre Haute is seeking arts organizations to submit proposals for the 2009-2010 arts grant funding program.

A complete copy of the Grant Application Eligibility Checklist is attached. The grants are designed to support the installation of public art in Terre Haute, to support arts organizations in the provision of programming to reach a broad cross section of Terre Haute, and to support arts development in the form of delivery of services or board enhancement. The grants also encourage projects that enhance artistic/cultural life and/or economic growth and development in the City of Terre Haute. Grant funding applies to projects taking place between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009.

The City of Terre Haute 2009-2010 Arts Project Support Grants are being administered by Arts Illiana, Arts Council of the Wabash Valley. Applications are available at City Hall, Arts Illiana or through the following websites: www.terrehaute.in.gov or www.artsilliana.org.

Proposals for the City Terre Haute 2009-2010 Arts Project Support Grants will be accepted until 5:00 pm on August 24, 2009. Send or drop off completed applications to Arts Illiana, 23 North Sixth Street, Terre Haute, IN 47807. The grant applications will be reviewed by a panel at a public review in early September in the conference room at Arts Illiana. Grant applications will be evaluated on three criteria: Overall quality of the project; community impact of the project; and management of the project. Grant applicants will be notified of the review time by e-mail or phone. Note: Only one grant will be awarded per higher learning institution. Applicants will be notified of grant awards after approval by the Mayor following the review session. Grant award presentations will take place at Arts Illiana at a public ceremony to be scheduled for mid-September.
